ABOUT THE APARTMENT

Kidston Court occupies an enviable position in a small, peaceful courtyard development just off the east end of Market Street, one of the most central and sought-after addresses in St Andrews. The apartment is set across two levels, offering a warm and characterful feel with all the comfort and practicality a golfing group could need.

With its own designated private parking space just five yards from the entrance, a rarity in this part of town, Kidston Court offers the perfect balance of quietude and convenience. The Castle, Cathedral, historic University buildings, the Old Course and the town's finest restaurants, bars and cafés are all just minutes on foot. The apartment itself is clean, well-equipped throughout, and comfortably accommodates up to four guests in two bedrooms across the two floors, with a shower room and in-unit washer.
