ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Auld Lang Syne is an award-winning detached self-catering holiday home nestled in St Andrews, immaculately presented across three floors and refurbished to the highest standards by an interior designer. Accommodating up to 12 guests in 9 separate beds, this is one of the finest large-group properties in the town, equally suited to golfing parties, family gatherings, and group reunions.

The ground floor flows beautifully from the entrance hall through a large living room with wood-burning stove, into an open-plan dining area (seating 10) and a professional Rangemaster kitchen, all opening to a sunny, south-facing private garden with patio. With 4 bathrooms, 6 bedrooms over two upper floors, a second lounge, and free parking for four cars, Auld Lang Syne offers an exceptional level of space, comfort and privacy for Open Championship week.

THE 155TH OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Open Championship returns to the legendary Old Course at St Andrews in 2027 — the 155th staging of golf's oldest major. In what promises to be one of the most historic sporting occasions of the decade, the world's finest players will compete for the Claret Jug before record crowds in the home of golf. Accommodation of Auld Lang Syne's scale, quality and calibre for the full championship week represents an extraordinarily rare opportunity. With capacity for 12, it is the perfect base for a large golfing party or group of friends.
