ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Murray Place is a large, three-floor townhouse ideally placed on a quiet street in the heart of St Andrews, one of the finest locations in the town for Open Championship week. This long-time family home has been immaculately maintained and offers flexible, generous sleeping arrangements for up to 10 guests.

The ground floor provides comfortable entry-level accommodation, while the highlight of the home is the large first-floor living room, offering views of the sea, the perfect setting for post-round analysis, pre-dinner drinks, and the kind of traditional Scottish atmosphere that money can't buy. Six bedrooms across three floors offer genuine flexibility: four large rooms can be configured as super king or twin beds, with two additional single rooms providing options for larger parties.

With three shower rooms and one full bathroom, four dedicated facilities ensure the morning rush is handled with ease. The golf courses are a short walk away; the town's finest restaurants and cafes, including a wonderful coffee shop at the end of the road, are all within easy reach. Street parking is available locally and, given the location, your car will rarely be needed.

THE 155TH OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Open Championship returns to the legendary Old Course at St Andrews in 2027 — the 155th staging of golf's oldest major. In what promises to be one of the most historic sporting occasions of the decade, the world's finest players will compete for the Claret Jug before record crowds in the home of golf. Accommodation of Auld Lang Syne's scale, quality and calibre for the full championship week represents an extraordinarily rare opportunity. With capacity for 12, it is the perfect base for a large golfing party or group of friends.
